Game Setup:

Separate the chickens into squeakers and non-squeakers and put the correct number of each into the Nest (game box bottom), depending on player count. Set all other chickens aside; they won't be used this game.

Select the active player for the first round.

Each Round:

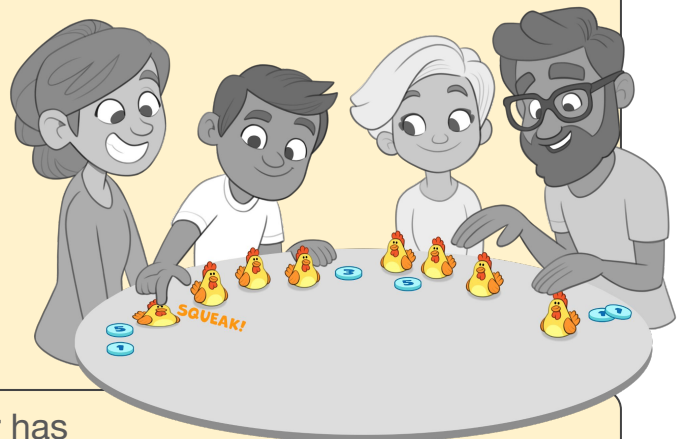

Deal each player (including the active player) 1 or 2 chickens, depending on player count. Be sure that no chickens are pressed yet; no one should know which chickens will squeak!

On the count of three, all players (including the active player) smash their chicken(s)! Listen carefully - these squeaky clucks can be deceiving...

The active player then has a chance to earn points by correctly identifying chickens that did NOT squeak. They should select one chicken at a time, pressing it to prove that it is a Non-Squeaker. If they are correct, they have the choice to press their cluck and keep guessing additional chickens. They can stop any time and earn 1 point chip for each correct guess.

However, if any guess results in a Squeaker, they BUST and do not earn any points this round.

Prepare for the next round by mixing all chickens together in the nest and assigning the next active player.

Game End:

Gameplay continues until one player has earned enough points to win, according to player count.
